Pay of Mr. V. Vedavyasacharya, Secy. Stores Purchase Committee.

File No. of 193 . | General and Revenue Secretariat

(6) In the case of Mr. M.S. Ramachandra Rao, a special personal pay was allowed. In G.O. No. 211-12/CB 211-24-1 dt. 18.7.1925, the salary of the post was fixed at Rs 500-50-600. But successive officers who were appointed as Secy. S.P.C. thereafter were not given this grade, on the ground that "the appointment being a temporary* one, it is not desirable to have any fixed scale of pay for the same"; and Messrs. T.V.A. Iswaran (May 1926) S.G.M. Mekhri (October 1928), and E.V. Ganapati Iyer (June 1929) were each given their grade pay plus an allowance of Rs 100 per mensem. Reference is also invited to Notes in CB. 32-33-1 put up.

* (The organization of the Stores Purchase committee has since been made permanent)

(7) The salary to be allowed to Mr. V. Vedavyasacharya is for orders. He is drawing the maximum pay of an Asst. Comr (Rs 450) and may get a chance of acting as a Senior Asst. Comr shortly.

(8) He is Secretary, S.P.C. and has been recently appointed Secretary to the Krishnarajasagara Working Committee. [He is also in charge of the D & C. Section of the Secretariat]

(12) It will be seen that when Mr. Ganapathi Iyer was appointed as Secy, S.P.C., it was proposed to fix his salary at his grade pay + an allowance of Rs. 75 p.m. In view of his doing some secretarial work also, the allowance was finally fixed at Rs. 100. Mr. Vedavyasachar's salary may be similarly fixed at his grade pay as Asst Comr + an allowance of Rs. 100 p.m. (He does a little more work than Mr. Ganapathi Iyer since he is also Secy, K.R.S Committee.) 3/1/34

(13) It is a cardinal rule that every Government servant to whom a variety of duties is assigned or to whose post a number of duties is attached should carry out those duties without extra remuneration unless they involve more than a reasonable day's work (Vide para 6 of chapter 4 of the Report of the Mysore Retrenchment Committee 1931) and applying this rule, Duty Allowances granted to several officers were abolished in the past. The present proposal to grant a Duty Allowance will, if sanctioned, create an inconvenient precedent and is therefore not financially acceptable.

(14) If, however, it is considered necessary to show some concession to Mr. Vedavyasachar in consideration of the facts mentioned above, the pay of the combined appointment of Secretary, Stores Purchase Committe + Publicity Officer + Secretary, K.R.S. Committee may, I think, be treated as a temporary appointment carrying a fixed rate of pay of Rs.500/-.

(15) Mr. Vedavyasachar is Secy S.P.C. Asst Secy, P.R. Section + Publicity Offr.

(Secretaryship of K.R.S. committee despite much work need hardly be taken into account).

(16) I agree with the 1st Secy that it is undesirable to grant a deputation on account of combination of duties. If that principle was once conceded, there would be other similar claims. E.g. Mr. N. Nanda might very well put forward a claim for an allowance as Secy C.R.B.

(17) The best thing is to fix the pay of the appointment of Secy S.P.C. as proposed by the 1st Secy.

(18) I entirely agree with the Financial Secretary as regards the undesirability of granting a [redacted] allowance to the Secy S.P.C. – whose work cannot be said to be of a more responsible or arduous nature than that of the Under-Secy or Asst. Secretaries to Govt.
Mr V. must be satisfied with the salary he gets & should not expect more.

(19) I regret I am unable to agree to a special pay for the appointment in this.
It is always best to refer cases as is found in the case of Mr M.S. Ramachari but to take it to regard it as personal thereafter.
